I am writing on behalf my wife and myself to join the many voices of protest over the effect of Larkspur Resolution 62/22 that has resulted in Emporio Rulli removing its outdoor seating. My wife and I met in Florence, Italy, where she lived, 30 years ago and we both enjoyed visits to our favorite “bars” (the generic term for coffee shops such as Rulli’s). After we married and she moved here, we continue to marvel every time we go there of Rulli’s ability to remind us of those blissful moments. In addition, a group of us “older” men, who used to meet every Friday morning in the back room of Rulli’s have been meeting at an outdoor table since the onset of the pandemic. As the folks at Google like to say, “Do the right thing” and repeal or modify this ordinance.
